Application for Student Membership

Join online at www.ashrae.org/students

At the student branch level, you'll enjoy meeting other students with similar interests – if your school hasn't yet started a student branch, take charge and contact a faculty member and ask for help on getting started!

Why ASHRAE?

- Discounts on publications, confereneces, and continuing education opportunities
- Society and chapter-level scholarships for both undergraduate and graduate engineering students
- Discounts for student members on select publications
- Digital access to the monthly ASHRAE Journal and the quarterly High Performing Building Magazine
- Participate in events with your local ASHRAE Chapter
- Find internships and jobs at jobs.ashrae.org
- Senior Undergraduate Project Grant Program
- Discounted ASHRAE Annual and Winter Conference registration (AHR Expo, Student Program, Technical Sessions)
- Gain essential skills not taught in class
- Make great new friends!

Developing Economies Program for Students
Students who reside in countries categorized as "Low Income" and "Lower Middle Income" developing economies by the World Bank List of Economies statistics are eligible to participate in this program. Students in this program receive all the benefits of regular student membership, including online access to the ASHRAE Journal (digital access only - participants will not receive a monthly printed copy of the ASHRAE Journal).

Visit www.worldbank.org for a listing of qualified countries: Low Income and Low Middle Income only. If you currently reside in one of the countries listed in those categories, simply check the box marked 'Developing Economies Program' in the 'Purchases' section of this application.
